These writ petitions are filed under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India praying to issue a writ or order in the nature of Certiorari to quash the demand notices of the 3rd respondent dated 19-9-1996 demanding difference from the petitioner in respect of the vehicle in question.

These writ petitions are coming on for Preliminary hearing this day, the Court made the following;

O R D E R

The only question involved in this case is regarding the payment of tax demanded as per Annexure-H. In view of the validity thereof being upheld by this Court nothing survives for consideration in these writ petitions. The demand made by the 3rd respondent relates to the arrears of tax levied. The petitioner cannot dispute the liability. Conferred with the situation the learned Counsel prays that he may be given some time to make the payment. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case the petitioner is directed to deposit the amount in three (3) equal monthly instalments within a period of 12 weeks from today. In case the petitioner fails to make the payment the writ petitions shall stand dismissed and the respondents are free to recover the amount.
